CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1.—The highest bidder to be the Purchaser, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the lot in dispute to be put up again at the discretion of the Auctioneer, or the Auctioneer may declare the Purchaser. The Auctioneer to have the power to refuse a bidding at his discretion, and to bid on behalf of the Vendor in the case of lots (if any) upon which there is a reserve, and also to withdraw any lot previously or at the time of sale, and to be the sole arbitrator in every matter of dispute. The bidding to be regulated by the Auctioneer at the time of sale, and no person is to retract a bidding.

2.—The Auctioneers do not guarantee the correct description, genuineness, or authenticity of any lot.

3.—The Purchasers shall fill up a deposit slip and pay a deposit of five shillings in the pound, in part payment, or the whole of the purchase-money (if required), and to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay the remainder of the purchase-money before the lots are removed, which are to be taken away not later than 4 o'clock on Thursday, 20th May, 1920. All lots will remain at the Purchaser's risk as soon as sold, and are to be cleared away without any allowance for faults and errors of description of any kind. Any damage caused by removal, or otherwise, must be made good by the person committing the same; principals being considered responsible for the acts of their servants.

4.—The Auctioneers reserve the right of altering the arrangement of the lots, by selling two or more lots as one lot, or in any other way they may think proper.

5.—In the event of the Vendor being unable, from any cause whatsoever, to deliver the whole or any portion of a lot, the right is reserved to make an allowance at the rate at which such lot may have been purchased.

LASTLY.—Upon failure by the Purchaser in complying with the above Conditions, his money deposited in part payment shall be forfeited; and the deficiency (if any), together with all expenses attending any resale, either by public or private sale, shall be made good by the defaulter at this sale.

N.B.—No Lots will be transferred.
